

The Holy Spirit: The Creating Power of Heaven and Earth

Dr. Hans Petter Thue

<https://springsofrevival.com>

The Spirit Who Brings God's Word into Reality

From the opening lines of Scripture, the Holy Spirit is revealed as the active, creating power of God.

Before there was form, before there was light, before creation took shape, “the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.”

God spoke — and the Holy Spirit brought His Word into visible reality.

Creation itself is the pattern:

- The Father will do it.
- The Son speaks it out.
- The Holy Spirit performs it.

Every act of God in Scripture follows this divine order. The Holy Spirit is not an optional influence or a distant force. He is the executing power of the Godhead — the One who takes what God says and makes it happen.

The Spirit Who Divides Seas and Shakes Nations

When Moses lifted his staff over the Red Sea, it was not human strength that split the waters.

It was not the wood of the staff that held back the waves.

It was the power of the Holy Spirit responding to the spoken word of God.

- Moses obeyed.
- Moses acted.
- Moses spoke.
- But the Spirit performed.

This is the same pattern for us today.

When we speak under the anointing — when our words are aligned with heaven — the Holy Spirit moves into action.

- Situations shift.
- Obstacles part.
- Darkness trembles.

What is impossible in the natural, becomes possible in the Spirit.

We do not create power.

We release the power that is already present in Him.

The Spirit Who Raises the Dead

The resurrection of Jesus is the greatest demonstration of the Spirit's power in all of history.

Scripture declares:

“The Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you.”

The same Spirit who breathed life back into the body of Christ is the Spirit who now lives in every believer.

- He is not a lesser version.
- He is not diluted.
- He is not symbolic.
- He is the resurrection power of God.

And this same power is at work in us:

- In salvation
- In water baptism
- In deliverance
- In transformation
- In the daily renewing of our inner man

When we go down into the waters of baptism, we are buried with Christ. When we rise, it is the Holy Spirit who raises us, just as He raised Jesus. Baptism is not a ritual — it is a resurrection moment.

The Spirit Who Creates What Does Not Exist

Throughout Scripture and throughout church history, the Holy Spirit has demonstrated His creative power in miracles:

- Blind eyes opening
- Deaf ears hearing
- Dead bodies rising
- Missing limbs restored

- Organs recreated
- Minds healed
- Lives transformed

These are not metaphors.

They are not poetic expressions.

They are the creative acts of the same Spirit who formed the universe.

When Jesus healed the blind, He was not repairing something broken — He was creating what had never existed.

When the lame walked, the Spirit was forming strength, bone, and muscle where there was none.

- The Holy Spirit has not changed.
- His power has not diminished.
- His creative nature has not weakened.
- He is still the Spirit who creates.

The Spirit Who Moves When We Speak

God has chosen partnership.

- He speaks through us.
- He moves through us.
- He releases His power through our obedience.

When we speak under His leading:

- Mountains move
- Demons flee
- Bodies are healed
- Atmospheres shift
- Prophetic words take shape
- Kingdom realities manifest

Our voice becomes the vessel.

The Holy Spirit becomes the power.

We do not command Him — we cooperate with Him.

We do not control Him — we yield to Him.

We do not create the miracle — we release the miracle-working Spirit.

Conclusion: The Spirit Who Creates Through Us Today

The Holy Spirit is:

- The creating power of Genesis
- The delivering power at the Red Sea
- The resurrection power at the tomb
- The miracle-working power in the ministry of Jesus
- The empowering presence in the Church today

When we speak in faith, under His guidance, the same Spirit moves.

- He creates.
- He heals.
- He resurrects.
- He transforms.
- He brings heaven into the earth.

This is the life we are called to live —
a life where the Word of God in our mouth and the Spirit of God in our hearts shake the world around us.